
Whenever this mind stirs from blissful slumber
To trace the vibrant images of etheric realms
It is with a sense of awe that this humble heart
Strives to convey the dream-like qualities
Experienced within lands foreign to the waking
Hour; to touch upon the wonders of such a
Majestic place inspires profound change
Clearing the way for new ideas to flourish
Beyond the rigid confines of a restless mind;
This inner flame, like a beacon of light, shines
Illuminating shadows that dwell deep within
The mind’s cavernous regions; a journey
Few of a curious nature undertake lightly:
Prying open the vaults of imagination to
Liberate thoughts of a transcendent nature
Blazing a trail for like-minded soles to Follow, should the desire to break free of Society’s shackles rise like a phoenix from
The ashes of yesterday’s heartfelt cries.
